10. Justification for Access

11. Computer System User Acknowledgement Statement

I understand that Lockheed Martin considers access, data, programs, software and/or any other information stored in its automated information systems or under its jurisdiction to be proprietary, even though such information may not be marked as such. I agree not to copy, use or disclose to others any such information without prior authorization of the owner of the information.

Additionally, I understand that all activities associated with Lockheed Martin automated information systems, which includes my accesses and account(s), are subject to electronic monitoring. Furthermore, I agree that I will

- Memorize my passwords and not display them where they may be compromised
- Not permit another individual to use my User ID and password to obtain access
- Not use passwords that can be identified or directly attributed to me (such as common family names, social security account numbers, telephone numbers or project names)
- Immediately notify the appropriate Lockheed Martin management or point of contact when I no longer require access to the automated information system(s)
- Immediately report any violation of automated information system resource controls to the appropriate management or point of contact
- Periodically clear the browser cache and the contents of any temporary directories to which data may have been copied while accessing a Lockheed Martin automated information system
- I validate that my computing device is configured to launch a password-protected screensaver after no more than 15 minutes of inactivity

I understand that failure to abide by the above may result in disciplinary action, termination of my access to Lockheed Martin automated information system(s), prosecution under 18 USC § 1905 and other action as deemed appropriate by Lockheed Martin.

By my physical or electronic signature below, I acknowledge that, as a user of a Lockheed Martin computer system, it is my responsibility to comply with all measures necessary to prevent unauthorized disclosure, modification or destruction of information. I acknowledge and accept the computer usage statements above.

However, my signature on this form shall not be construed as indicating the Government's agreement that the markings (or absence of markings) on the data, programs, software, or other information or maintained in Lockheed Martin's automated information systems are justified or conform to the requirements set forth in DFARS clauses 252.227-7013, 252-227-7014, and 252.227-7015, as applicable in the event such data, programs, software, or other information becomes a contractual deliverable. Accordingly, my signature shall not be construed to waive or to in any way diminish or inhibit the Government's otherwise existing legal or contractual rights to copy, use, or disclose to others such information once delivered under contract in accordance with the appropriate DFARS clause(s).
